

Online-Convention on regional mobility beyond TEN-T

26 May 2020

- 13:00 Opening by the moderator
- 13:05 Keynote address: plans of the EU COM for supporting public transport in Europe
Herald Rujters, DG MOVE, Director Directorate B „Investment, Innovative & Sustainable Transport“
- 13:20 Regional approaches and best practices: ways for connecting the hinterland to TEN-T
1. Planning: Conception of an Integrated Synchronised Timetable on NUTS-3-level
Marcus Bals, Head of Office, Office for Public Relations, Soemmerda County Administration, DE - representing the SubNodes partnership
 2. Services: Upgrading metropolitan public transport provision - MAAS solutions in urban peripheries
Matej Gojčič, Deputy director Regional development agency of Ljubljana urban region - representing Peripheral Access partnership
 3. Participation: Public involvement for the reactivation of feeder lines to TEN-T
Květoslav Havlík, Deputy director of South Moravian Integrated Public Transport, CZ - representing the SubNodes partnership
 4. Digital innovations: Smart public transport solutions integrating urban networks with peripheral and rural areas
Marco Mazzarino, Professor of Transport Economics, Logistics and Supply chain management - Università IUAV di Venezia - representing Peripheral Access partnership
- 14:20 Panel discussion and Q&A-session: requirements and solutions to make full use of TEN-T for all regions in Europe
- 14:45 end of meeting

Moderator: Prof. Dr. Matthias Gather (University of Applied Sciences Erfurt)