

Third Call Closes Soon

A new call for proposals was launched on 21 September and will close on 25 January 2018.

Around 60 million EUR ERDF is available for transnational cooperation ideas. In some areas the call focuses on pre-defined topics.

Third Call

Webinars for Applicants

Are you planning to submit a project proposal in the third call and want to get guidance and advice on how to improve the quality of your application?

Then have a look at a series of short webinars that will guide you through the project and budget development basics.

Third Call Q&A Webinar

Do you still have some unanswered questions about applying with us? Then join our Q&A webinar that gives you an opportunity to post your question live and get an instant answer.

You can also send us your questions via e-mail to info@interreg-central.eu (until 18 December) with "Q&A Webinar" in the subject line.

19 December 2017 | 10.00 - 11.30

An overhead view of four people sitting around a wooden table in a meeting. The table is covered with a white sheet of paper featuring several gear icons in orange, black, and green. One gear is significantly larger than the others. There are also some smaller icons, including a mail icon and the number '04'. Two tablets are on the table, one on the left and one on the right, both displaying gear icons. A person in a grey jacket is leaning over the table on the left, holding a blue pen. A person in a yellow sweater is sitting on a chair on the left. A person in a blue shirt is sitting on the right, and another person in a light blue shirt is sitting on the right. A coffee cup is on the table near the person in the blue shirt.

Third Call Online Partner Search

If you are still searching for relevant partners to realise your project idea, our Interreg CENTRAL EUROPE Community is a helpful online tool for building your partnership.

The free online community will also help those who want to join an existing partnership.

Desk Calendar 2018

With our new desk calendar we are introducing 50 funded projects from the second call that are jointly working on topics related to innovation, low carbon, environment, culture, and transport.

2018

50 NEW TRANSNATIONAL PROJECTS
TAKING COOPERATION FORWARD

50 NEW TRANSNATIONAL PROJECTS
TAKING COOPERATION FORWARD

Interreg CENTRAL EUROPE projects address shared challenges in regional innovation, low-carbon economy, environment, culture and transport. We are currently funding 85 transnational projects with around 160 million Euro from the European Regional Development Fund. In the following 50 weeks we will introduce you to the successful 50 partnerships from the second call for proposals. These new projects will be taking cooperation forward every day in 2018 - for a stronger central Europe.
