

Apply with us

Third call opens 21 September

.....

Around 60 million EUR co-financing will be available for transnational cooperation ideas.

We seek project proposals that help improve capacities for urban and regional development in four priorities: innovation, low carbon, culture and environment, and transport.

In some thematic areas the call will be focused on specific topics. It will stay open until 25 January 2018.

Read the complete news here

Register now Annual Conference 2017

.....

Come to Berlin and celebrate with us 20 years of transnational cooperation in central Europe!

Join us on 21-22 September and discuss with 400 other participants why transnational cooperation is important in central Europe.

We will launch the third call and new project ideas can present themselves in PitchIt! sessions.

Register now

PitchIt!

Cooperation ideas for central Europe

.....

Do you want to get first-hand feedback on your project idea? Are you looking for partners to cooperate with you?

Then pitch your project idea to experts and like-minded people at our annual conference in Berlin. We are already looking forward to discussing your ideas with you.

Apply now for a PitchIt! presentation slot

Community Find project partners online

If you are still searching for relevant partners to realise your project idea, our Interreg CENTRAL EUROPE Community is a helpful online tool for building your partnership.

The community will also help you to join an existing partnership.

*Join our community
and get in touch today*